

Women shaping society. International Women's Week 2013

Our week-long programme (4-8 March) offers fascinating speakers, powerful performances, opportunities to share experiences and to network. All events are open to staff and students and to both women and men.

For more information, please visit www.southampton.ac.uk/womensday or email sunny.takhar@soton.ac.uk

Monday 4 March, 5pm-7pm in The Observatory

Women in industry:
What shaped your career?

Monday 4 March, 7pm in The Bridge

Women in theatre

Tuesday 5 March, 12-2pm

Theano - a talk by Julie Brinton

Wednesday 6 March, 12-1pm

Parent and Carers' Network – Anna Springett

Wednesday 6 March, 5-5:45pm and 6pm-6:45
in The Cube/The Cinema at SUSU

Free Zumba Classes

Thursday 7 March, 12-2pm in the
Turner Sims Foyer

Diversity networking event

Thursday 7 March, 6:45pm – 9pm

SUSU Debating Team

Friday 8 March, 12-1pm

Parent and Carers' Network – Lorraine Lee

Friday 8 March, from 5:30pm

Women shaping lives - a fun and inspiring evening

A free event offering three thought-provoking and inspirational speakers and a fashion show, plenty of time to network and socialise, with light refreshments and music. The speakers will be Professor Jessica Corner, Professor Nyovani Madise and Sarah Bogle, Labour Councillor for Bargate.